

Quilt # 51

QUILT NAME: “Card Trick”

LOCATION: Recycled Wardrobes – this used clothing, vintage and furniture store is celebrating its’ 25th anniversary in 2015. With locations in Lindstrom and North Branch, the family-friendly stores have an ever-changing supply of clothing, shoes and household items. Recycled Wardrobes has a commitment to their mission; local families benefit first from their recycling effort, and you can clearly see their investment in our community! Happy Recycling!!

Note: Each Spring, Recycled Wardrobes contributes the proceeds from their Prom Dress sales to a worthy non-profit in the local area. They were very impressed with the positive impact the Highway 8 Chairs project had in the Chisago Lakes Area, and wanted to contribute to the Community Foundation’s next project. Proceeds from Lindstrom’s 2014 Prom Dress Sales were given to the foundation for use toward the Swedish Barn Quilt Trail.

ARTIST: Brian Tima, Lindstrom

Brian is the youngest artist who contributed his talents to the barn quilt trail. He attends Chisago Lakes Primary School. His Grandpa is Dave Oaks. Brian says he watches and helps his Grandpa make Barn Quilts, and wanted to paint one himself. His 3 X 3 quilt square is proudly displayed at Recycled Wardrobes.
