

Quilt # 5

QUILT NAME: “Morning Star with Tulips”

LOCATION: The Old Creamery – The Chisago City Co-Operative Creamery was originally formed in 1896, and the old creamery building has been used for a variety of purposes since the creamery closed in 1970. The building became the home of the Merry Peddlers in April 2015, boasting lots of new, vintage and repurposed items. (Merry Peddlers is now located on main street in Lindstrom)

10550 South Ave.
Chisago City MN 55013

ARTIST: Rachel Coyne, Lindstrom

Rachel is a writer and painter. She is a devotee of Pablo Neruda (a Chilean poet-diplomat who won a Nobel Prize for literature in 1971). She also loves Don Williams songs and is a collector of vintage editions of Jane Eyre. Rachel is a graduate of the Perpich Center for the Arts, Macalester College and the Washington College of Law. One of her early works is a children’s book entitled “Daughter Have I Told You?”. As a novelist, her books include “Whiskey Love”, “Whiskey Heart” and “The Patron Saint of Lost Comfort Lake”.

